STATEMENT OF CPNI PROCEDURES AND COMPLIANCE

Budget Prepay, Inc. provides local exchange services and long distance services on a prepaid basis to residential customers. Bluebird Wireless Broadband Services, LLC provides internet access and Voice over Internet Protocol (“VoIP”) services to residential customers. Budget Prepay, Inc. d/b/a Budget Phone and Bluebird Wireless Broadband Services, LLC (“The Companies”) provide the following statement regarding CPNI compliance.

The Companies do not use or permit access to CPNI to market any telecommunications or non-telecommunications services. The Companies have trained their personnel not to use CPNI for marketing purposes. Should The Companies elect to use CPNI in future marketing efforts, they will follow the applicable rules set forth in 47 CFR Subpart U, including, if necessary, the institution of operational procedures to ensure that notification is provided and customer approval is obtained before CPNI is used or disclosed.

The Companies have put into place processes to safeguard its customers’ CPNI, including call detail information, from improper use or disclosure by employees; and to discover and protect against attempts by third parties to gain unauthorized access to customer CPNI. All employees must obtain the appropriate level of authorization prior to obtaining a secure login and password to access the data.

The Companies do not disclose CPNI or call detail records over the telephone unless The Companies authenticate the customers without the use of readily available biographical or account information password or PIN. Customers are either called back at the telephone number of record or are sent call detail record information to the account address of record.

The Companies are not yet subject to the on-line requirement as they both qualify as small business entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act or Small Business Act with fewer than 1500 employees for and less than $6 million in VOIP annual revenues. Both Companies will be in full compliance including authentication procedures to safeguard the disclosure of CPNI, including call detail records, and the establishment of backup authentication procedures for lost or stolen passwords that do not prompt the customer for readily available biographical or account information by June 8, 2008.

The Companies do not have their own retail locations and therefore does not disclose CPNI in-store. Customers subscribe to service for The Companies at retail locations contracted with the Company. Such locations only provide and accept applications for service and prepaid funds toward the customer's account and do not have access to any account information, CPNI or call detail records.

The Companies have procedures in place to notify law enforcement in the event of a breach of customers' CPNI and to ensure customers are notified of the breach before the time period set forth in the FCC's rules, or, if applicable, when so authorized by law enforcement. The Company has procedures in place to track, through a written record, all breaches discovered and notifications made to the United States Secret Service and the FCC, and to customers. To date the Company has not experienced a breach of customers' CPNI or call detail records.

Neither of The Companies have taken any actions against data brokers in the last year.

Neither of The Companies received any customer complaints about the unauthorized release of CPNI or unauthorized disclosure of CPNI in calendar year 2007.

Neither of The Companies have developed any information with respect to the processes pretexters are using to attempt to access CPNI.
